(ACADEMIC SESSION 2020-2021)

DATE: 08.07.2021

PLATFORM: ONLINE, GMEET.

TIME: 11AM-4PM

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 15

On July 8, 2021, the Department of English at Rani Birla Girls' College organized an online special lecture series featuring three distinguished speakers, each presenting on various aspects of English literature. The event was held via Google Meet and was attended by 15 participants.

The lecture series comprised the following presentations:

1. "(EN)Gendering the Nation; Rereading Henry Louis Vivien Derozio's Poetry."

Presented by Mr. Sayan Chatterjee, Researcher at the University of North Bengal.

Mr. Chatterjee's lecture explored the intersection of gender and national identity, offering a critical analysis of how gender constructs influence and shape national narratives.

2. "Gender & Class Boundaries in Rossetti's Poem"

Presented by Ms. Sritama Bhattacharyya, Researcher at Jadavpur University.

Ms. Bhattacharyya's presentation examined the themes of gender and class in the poetry of Christina Rossetti, delving into how these boundaries are portrayed and critiqued in her works.

3. "Thinking through Beckett"

Presented by Mr. Debojyoti Sarkar, Researcher at Jawaharlal Nehru University.

Mr. Sarkar's lecture focused on Samuel Beckett's contributions to literature, analysing his innovative narrative techniques and existential themes.

The online format facilitated an engaging and interactive discussion among the participants, who benefited from the diverse perspectives and scholarly insights offered by the speakers. The series was well-received, providing valuable academic enrichment for all attendees.

DATE: 10.12. 2021

ORGANISED BY: Seminar Committee, Rani Birla Girls' College

PLATFORM: ONLINE, GMEET

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 60

On 10th December 2021, the Seminar Committee at Rani Birla Girls' College hosted a special online lecture in observance of Human Rights Day. The lecture, titled "Universal Declaration of Human Rights: Universal Women in Perspective," aimed to explore the significance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights with a focus on women's rights, enabling participants to engage with the speaker and gain insights from the comfort of their own locations. The Guest Speaker was Dr. Anup Shekhar Chakraborty, Assistant Professor, Netaji Institute for Asian Studies, Kolkata. Dr. Chakraborty provided an in-depth analysis of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, with a particular emphasis on its implications for women's rights and gender equality and highlighted the progress made in human rights for women and identified ongoing challenges and areas for improvement. The event successfully fostered a greater understanding of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its impact on advancing women's rights, aligning with the objectives of Human Rights Day.
