6th September: Jojo Rabbit by Taika Waititi

Jojo Rabbit is a 2019 comedy-drama film written and directed by Taika Waititi, adapted from Christine Leunens's 2008 book Caging Skies.

The title character, Johannes "Jojo" Betzler, a ten-year-old Hitler Youth member finds out that his mother is hiding a Jewish girl in their attic. He must then question his beliefs while dealing with the intervention of his imaginary friend, a fanciful version of Adolf Hitler with a comedic stance on the politics of the war. ### 7th September: Agantuk (The Stranger) by Satyajit Ray Agantuk (The Stranger) is a 1991 Bengali-language drama film written and directed by Satyajit Ray.

The plot depicts a well-off family which is paid an unexpected, and rather unwanted, visit by a man claiming to be the woman's long-lost uncle. Anila receives a letter from a long-lost uncle she last saw 35 years ago, who hopes to stay at her family home in Calcutta, India. Her husband, Subhindra, immediately suspects that this "uncle" may be an impostor. So when the stranger arrives, he's given the third degree by husband, friends and even the family lawyer. He's only accepted by Anila's young son, who is in thrall to his stories of global travel. Watch the film here...

8th September: Avatar by James Cameron

Avatar (often called James Cameron's Avatar) is a 2009 American epic science fiction film directed, written, produced, and co-edited by James Cameron. The film is set in the mid-22nd century when humans are colonizing Pandora, a habitable moon in another solar system, in order to mine the valuable mineral unobtainium. The expansion of the mining colony threatens the continued existence of a local tribe of Na'vi – a humanoid species indigenous to Pandora.

Avatar is widely celebrated for its politically and culturally sensitive critique of the "West's" neocolonial wars and exploitation of the "global south" – an allegory for (neo)colonialism – and for highlighting the plight of tribal communities throughout the world (for instance, the case of the Dongriah Kondh tribe of India). ## 9th September: Suffragette by Sarah Gavron

Even though the architects of the Indian Constitution ensured voting rights to women from the moment of Independence, it is fact that until only around 100 years ago, women did not have the right to vote in most countries (including countries like the USA, UK and most other European Countries). In the absence of the right to vote, the lives of women were entirely dictated by the will of men. Suffragette documents the struggles of women to win their right to vote – the right to have a say in their own lives, to be treated as equals.

Suffragette is a tart reminder to those who are casual about democratic gender equality that votes for women were not something that naturally evolved due to the ruling class's innate decency; they had to be fought for. Watch the film here...

10th September: Ran by Akira Kurosawa

As Kurosawa's last epic, Ran has often been cited as among his finest achievements and is widely regarded as one of the greatest films ever made. With a budget of $11 million it was the most expensive Japanese film produced up to that time.

Shawn Levy, of the Portland Oregonian wrote, "In many respects, it's Kurosawa's most sumptuous film, a feast of color, motion and sound." Apart from the fact that the film is a feast of color, motion and sound, Kurosawa's interpretation of Shakespeare in the Japanese context remains one of the greatest achievements of adaptation in film history. ## Image 3 to 6: Links for Official Google Classrooms and WhatsApp Groups for the Even Semester, 2020-21

Google Classroom Links and WhatsApp group links for Semester 1 students.

To enrol for online classes, students must follow these steps:

1. On your phones, download the "Google Classroom" app from the Play store or AppStore. You can also use Google Classroom on a laptop or desktop.
2. Login with your Gmail account username and password. (Use your personal email address to login.)
3. After you have logged into Google Classroom, come back to this document and click the link of the subjects/classes you have taken admission for. DO NOT join Classrooms that are not applicable to you.
4. If the link does not work, follow these steps:
  - a. go to the Google Classroom app,
  - b. tap the "+" (plus) button on the screen
  - c. Click "Join Class", type the Class code provided in this document.
  - d. Finally, tap "Join".
5. After joining, students must visit the classrooms regularly for updates related to online classes.
6. Finally, wherever available, join the WhatsApp groups using the link given below. If both Classroom and link and WhatsApp link are given for a subject, join both.

Sensitization Programme on Dengue Prevention

A Virtual Awareness Campaign

8th August, 2020

What is Dengue?

- Dengue fever is a mosquito borne tropical disease caused by the dengue virus. It is spread by several species of female mosquitoes of the Aedes type.
- Dengue has become a global problem since the Second World War and is common in more than 120 countries, mainly in Southeast Asia, South Asia and South America. About 390 million people are infected a year and approximately 40,000 die. The earliest descriptions of an outbreak dated 1779

Symptoms	Dengue can occasionally affect several body systems, in isolation or classic dengue symptoms	A Pregnant woman who develops dengue is at higher risk of miscarriage and premature birth	2020
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Sudden-onset high fever</li> <li>Headache</li> <li>Muscle and joint pains</li> <li>Skin Rash</li> <li>Vomiting</li> </ul> Typically, people infected with Dengue Virus are asymptomatic (80%) or have only mild symptoms such as an uncomplicated fever. Others have more severe illness (5%) and in a small proportion it is life threatening. The incubation period (time in a small proportion it is life threatening) ranges from 3 to 14 days, but most often it is 4 to 7 days.			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>India observed National Dengue Day on 16th May, 2020, as suggested by the Union Health Ministry to create awareness about the disease.</li> </ul>
